Design and Sustainability at the Forefront of Italian Furniture Industry

Italy has secured its place as one of the world's top leading furniture exporters, moreover exports to the UAE have increased by 5.26% in the first half of 2023 to reach EUR 156 million. This growth makes the UAE a strategic market for Italy as it seeks to expand its global reach and goals.

Italy, renowned for its rich cultural heritage and unparalleled craftsmanship, has carved a niche in the furniture industry. Italian furniture stands as a testament to beauty, innovation, and sustainability, making "Made in Italy" synonymous with eco-friendly design. The country's commitment to sustainable practices is not only a matter of pride but a catalyst for growth and global recognition.

Combined to deliver harmonious blend of beauty, innovation, and sustainability, Italian companies have embraced "green practices" that are driving the industry towards a more sustainable future. This synergy has propelled Italy's wood interior decoration industry to the top spot in Europe and the 3rd position globally in terms of circular economy.

This commitment to sustainability is reflected in the industry's low carbon footprint. In fact, the Italian wood interior decoration industry is the third most sustainable in the world, releasing less CO2 emissions than any other large EU producer. An impressive 93% of chipboard panels are produced using recycled wood, further underlining the nation's efforts to environmental responsibility.

The path to a sustainable future starts with Sustainab-ITALY.

ADJ STYLE

Stand No. A01-28

The story of ADJ began in 2016. After years of experience in interior design, the founder, Ekaterina Borovkova, decided to create her own line of accessories for daily life.

The first collection of home accessories was inspired by her family. A triangle was chosen as the logo, symbolizing sustainability and stability, with the initials of her children: Aleksandr, Diego, Julia.

Ekaterina personally designs, draws, and plans production, which makes ADJ unique and appealing. Each item has its own story and protagonists that determine the color, shape, and end use.

One of the company's main values is a sustainable and responsible approach to design, in line with current environmental manufacturing standards that guarantee high quality and durability.

The production of semi-finished products in Germany ensures stability and precision, while the finished products are designed, assembled, and packaged in Italy.

Today, ADJ offers a wide range of fully customizable luxury accessories for homes, offices, yachts, and private jets, as well as hotels and restaurants.

ARCAHORN

Our history has begun in 1958 when Mario Guerra, fascinated by artistic craftsmanship and by the natural beauty of horn, decided to set up a workshop blending traditional know-how with good taste.

Euro luce light of italy is an Italian company that has been operating in the lighting sector for more than 25 years and is present in countless foreign markets and at the most important international fairs, distinguishing itself for its continuous evolution and growth.

Ours is the story of the passion for made in Italy from the beginning, since we were a small but dynamic and innovative reality in the sector of chandeliers and of lighting.

A passion that is renewed day after day and that is confirmed by the successes of the new collections and the decades of trust of our friends customers. But the real secret of success is linked to the human factor and the important know-how that our craftsmen, our technicians, our designers have been able to build. EVA – THE APPLE OF DESIRE

EVA is the Italian brand that realizes the iconic apples of desire. Highly artistic content design objects dedicated to those who love the exclusivity of unique pieces.

The idea of Eva - The Apple of Desire, came up in 2016 from the idea of interior designers William Zanotto and Raffaella Guarda and their desire to create a surprising design piece which could be many things in one: a fine apple-shaped piece of furniture but at the same time a moneybox, a dream container, a new canvas for artists.

The strength of the brand comes from the fact that for some collections, in addition to a refined piece of furniture, the EVA apple becomes a three-dimensional canvas for artists who collaborate in the project, combining art and design. In our opinion these two concepts, traditionally distant or incompatible, can coexist and strengthen each other.

EVA design apples become a powerful means of communication for art and the result is the creation of original, unique, engaging and superlative objects.

EVA apples are produced with major passion and dedication in our laboratories in Italy and the shape of each one of them reflects the high-end craftsmanship involved in the process.

FUTURA LEATHERS SPA

Stand No. A01-23

Futura Leathers' birthplace is a unique legacy.

We come from Arzignano, a town in the Chiampo Valley in the north eastern part of Italy where tanning has its ancient origins. Some papers documenting leather processing go back as far as the fourteenth century. Futura Leathers was founded here in 1985. Since then we have carried forward this tradition and experience, transforming it into a specialization, protecting our heritage and the values we embraced right at the beginning.

We started out as traders to become the Group that we are today; 5 production units working together to interpret the demands of over 700 customers in 70 countries. The principles that guide us have never changed: honesty, respect and fair dealing. These are not simple words, they are our core values. They are reflected in our distinct approach to business as we continue to be the custodians of the most authentic Made in Italy and a truly unique way of working.

NESTART

Stand No. A01-26

NestArt is an Italian startup that creates unique and eco-friendly furniture pieces that merge functional design and aesthetic.

NestArt has developed a design process, aimed at recovering wastes from laser cutting processes in order to transform them into design products, such as tables, panels, seats, doors, partitions, screens, decorative surfaces and so on.

The startup was born as a spinoff of Bordini Bonfiglio s.r.l., a manufacturing company specialized in metalworking for over 50 years. "The name NestArt" comes from the union of Nesting, which is the process to minimize the amount of scrap raw material produced during laser cutting, and Art, as our products are artistic and artisanal. The name includes also the word Start, to symbolize the beginning of something new, a new adventure, a new challenge: creating innovative, resistant and eco-friendly surfaces.

The craft process that is used to turn waste into design products is inspired by the ancient tradition of "Tarsia Rolese". We start from the recovery of scrap metal waste to develop projects and items with ethical and aesthetic value, thanks to the union of creativity and craftsmanship and to our commitment to environmental sustainability. From furniture to work of art, each piece is meticulously crafted with repurposed metal. This approach not only reduces waste but also adds a distinctive character to each product.

Renato Bugiotti was born in 1972 in Italy. A few years later, he relocates with his family to Orosei, Sardinia, an unspoiled location where nature still reigns supreme.

The sea and centuries-old trees influence his perception of art and expressive language. Nothing and no one have the power to reach the beholder's heart like the strength of stone, the rough soul of wood, and the infinite mystery of the sea and its underwater world.

His artworks have been shown in solo exhibitions in London, Dubai, China, Germany, and France. The contrast and relationships between various possible material components best reveal his language and expressive ability.
