Confartigianato Imprese

Confartigianato Imprese plays a crucial role in representing the interests of craftsmen and small enterprises in Italy. With a membership exceeding 700,000 entrepreneurs across 870 sectors, Confartigianato operates through a network of 103 territorial associations, 21 regional federations, 12 sector federations, and 46 craft groups, supported by 1,201 territorial branches and employing approximately 10,700 staff members. This extensive network provides tailored services to support small enterprises in navigating and thriving in an increasingly globalized market, elevating the reputation of Italian small business worldwide for its commitment to quality, craftsmanship, and the iconic "Made in Italy" style.

Confartigianato is dedicated to guiding small entrepreneurs through their growth and development journey, harmonizing traditional values with cutting-edge technological innovations. Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with fewer than 20 employees constitute a staggering 98.2% of all companies in Italy, employing around ten million individuals and forming the backbone of the country's economic identity. These enterprises, born from diverse regions of Italy, actively shape their local territories and contribute to an innovative production ecosystem capable of generating prosperity, fostering employment opportunities, reinforcing social cohesion, and preserving a rich heritage of craftsmanship, skills, and industriousness.

CNA, the National Confederation of the Craft Sector and Small and Medium Enterprises, established in 1946 has been representing and protecting the interests of craft companies, SMEs, and all forms of self-employed workers for over seventy years.

The mission of CNA is to enhance crafts and small and medium enterprises, acting as their partner for development and promoting economic and social development. This objective is pursued through a structured and widespread organization, a system of companies providing integrated services and tailored consulting to enterprises, a modern structure that provides its members with assistance, information and innovative solutions.

The extensive spreading of crafts, both in large cities and in small municipalities, corresponds to a widespread presence of CNA. The over 8.500 collaborators, operating in the 1.100 regional and district offices of the Confederation provide not only services, consulting and information, but have the credibility, the professional skills and the strength of feeling co-star of the success of small enterprises and the development of a sector that continues to create new jobs and new enterprises.

CNA has been the first crafts organization signing agreements with Unions.

It presently signs national Collective Bargaining Agreements for handicrafts and SMEs in all sectors of production.
