The standalone initiative Fashion Destination Italy, organized by ITA – Italian Trade Agency, marks a new opportunity for Italian companies in the apparel and accessories sector interested in strengthening their presence in the Croatian market and, more broadly, in the Western Balkans.

On this occasion, the promotion of authentic Made in Italy products will be supported by the comprehensive framework of the latest promotional campaign launched this year by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, “Le Giornate della moda italiana nel mondo” - The Days of Italian Fashion in the World. This project aims to celebrate Italian fashion through events that highlight the quality, creativity, innovation, and sustainability of our enterprises. It represents a coordinated narrative designed to showcase the legacy of Italian craftsmanship while embracing the exciting evolution of contemporary fashion trends, fostering cultural exchange and collaboration across borders.
