New market-access approval for fresh bananas from Myanmar to China

China's General Administration of Customs has granted market access for fresh bananas produced in Myanmar to be imported into China. Qualified orchards and packing facilities in Myanmar need to complete official registration before shipment. The first consignments are expected to arrive in China in the coming weeks. (Asia Fruit)

Robust growth of Vietnamese durian exports to China in the first half of 2026

Vietnamese durian exports to China reached a value of 988 million USD in January-June 2026, rising by 43.4 % year-on-year. Durian remained one of the top tropical fruit categories imported by China from Southeast-Asian suppliers. (China Daily)

Shifting wine import trends for bulk Australian wine entering China

Australia-originated bulk wine shipments to China continued their recovery in recent weeks, while import volumes for several bottled wine categories from South-American suppliers recorded a year-on-year decline. Industry participants expect further adjustments for wine tariff-related trade flows in the second half of 2026. (WBO)

Fresh jackfruit from Bangladesh gains official market access to China

China's General Administration of Customs announced that fresh jackfruit originating in Bangladesh can be imported into China starting from July 27, 2026. Export orchards and packing facilities must complete official registration and traceability procedures before delivering consignments to the Chinese market. (China Daily)

Tech Innovation and Smart Equipment Reshape China's Granary Heartland

Heilongjiang province, China's top grain producer, is accelerating agricultural modernization through high-end equipment upgrades, now operating over 676,000 intelligent farm machines. Local manufacturers are deploying autonomous tractors and crop-protection drones priced at €5,130 (40,000 yuan) to optimize cultivation efficiency and bolster national food security. (Xinhua)
